Product description

Brass Keepsake Urn - Child Funeral Urn

Towards You

Nobody can ever understand or manage to fully accept parting away from a loved one. And this feeling is even more hard to accept when the person that passed away is a young child. Our range of urns for children are intended for ashes of children with up to 9kg of body weight, and they can also serve as keepsake urns. This particular urn for a child is among the most popular ones.

A dove spreads its wings and flies away, and so did your child. However while you cannot hold your little one on your lap anymore, this urn's design recreates that feeling. The modern styled figures of an adult holding a child on his lap and embracing him or her is truly beautiful.

Besides the unique design, this urn is made from the highest quality solid brass. It is a solid urn that is made to last, just like your love for your little one who passed away. Child bereavement is a devastating experience. Having a memorial urn for children helps honour the child's memory. It's a lovely way to commemorate a child's short life and celebrate the memories of happier times.
